Re: Protecting and Promoting the Open Internet, GN Docket No. 14-28; Connect America Fund, WC Docket No. 10-90; Developing a Unified Intercarrier Compensation Regime, CC Docket No. 01-92

Dear Mr. DelNero:

Pursuant to the Commission's Open Internet Order,¹ FairPoint Communications, Inc. hereby notifies the Bureau of its intention to cease offering its broadband Internet transmission service as a telecommunications service and offer it instead as a private service.

In the Open Internet Order, the Commission classified retail mass market broadband Internet access service ("BIAS") as a partially forborne telecommunications service, but declined to reclassify other broadband services, such as special access, enterprise broadband and wholesale broadband services, as telecommunications services.² The Commission's forbearance allowed telecommunications carriers to provide BIAS free from a variety of provisions of the Communications Act otherwise applicable to telecommunications carriers, such as ratemaking regulations.³ At the same time the Commission indicated that any carrier that had elected to provide BIAS subject to "the full range of Title II requirements" remained subject to all the applicable Title II rights and obligations unless and until such carrier elects to change its offering of broadband Internet transmission services "pursuant to the construct adopted in this Order," in which event the carrier "should notify the Wireline Competition Bureau 60 days prior to
